DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In respond to applicant's amendment filed 04/09/2007, claims 1-12 have been canceled, and new claims 13-16 have been added.
2. Reference AA -US 5851284 has been considered and included with this office action.
3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 4-12 have been considered but are moot in view of new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite, vague, and confusing for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention, for example.

It is not clear whether the “ ... the laser being operable to cause a beam of radius r_a to propagate through the rod, where $r_a < r_o$ ”, does it means the beam pumping into the rod is less then the rod, or the beam out put from the rod is less then the rod, especially when $r_a = r_o/4$. There was no figure to show such structure and/or relationship. In addition, it is not clear to the examiner how/what equi-axis crystal equivalent to – is it a cylindrical rod with equal radius at all point, or a parallelogram rod meet the same definition. There is insufficient means plus function structural relationship between the elements, which render the claims vague and indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 102(b) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable Rice K.D. et al. (Journal of the Optical Society of America: p 7587-766).

With respect to claims 13, 14 Rice et al. shows and discloses a solid-state laser comprising: a (100)-cut crystal rod belonging to an equi-axis crystal system (Fig 1, 4: equi-axis [100] cut crystal rod, with rod radius), the rod having radius r_o , the laser being operable to cause a beam of r_a to propagate through the rod, wherein $r_a < r_o$ (Fig 13: where the laser P_{in} being operable to cause a beam of r_a to propagate through the rod, wherein $r_a < r_o$)

With respect to claim 14, wherein $r_a = r_o/4$ (page 763, equation 18, B7).

With respect to claims 15, 16 Rice et al. discloses wherein the crystal rod comprises a composite material in which doped YAG is surrounded by undoped YAG (Title / page 758: col 1, p760: col 1 -YAG: Nd laser doped YAG surrounded by undoped YAG).
